“ I was originally recommended to Cyrus by my Chiropractor when I was getting enormous amounts of pain from my back problem. I immediately felt comfortable with Cyrus and we developed such a level of trust that we have been working on a number of issues, such as weight management issues and grief from losing my father, as well as my back problems. Cyrus and the kinesiology approach has meant we dealt with physical as well as behavioural and emotional reasons. I feel stronger, sexier and more content than I have felt in years, so much so that I have recommended Cyrus to my husband and friends. ”
